

Saturday Bridge Game Slated for YWCA Club

A Saturday evening bridge game for the southern communities area is announced by Bob Christie, Torrance Bridge Club director.

The games will be played at the YWCA, 2820 Carson St. where according to Christie, 132 bridge enthusiasts now take part in one of the three games offered by the Club.

Tuesday and Thursday evening games begin at 8 p.m. sharp and Wednesday afternoon games start at 1 p.m. and offer low cost baby sitting.

A monthly Master Point game will be played today with winners awarded a full Master Point, equivalent to 100 Fractional Master Points.

The next Master Point Game will be held July 21.

Plans Set Here for Woman's Club Tea

Final plans are being formulated by the Torrance Woman's Club and the Torrance Junior Woman's Club for their open house tea July 23 from 1:30 to 3 p.m. at the clubhouse at 1422 Engracia. Purpose of the tea is to acquaint the residents of Torrance, who are interested in a woman's club, with its aims and activities, announces Mrs. Sid Gans, membership chairman.

A committee comprised of past presidents will serve as official hostesses, greeting the guests upon their arrival and providing any information they desire regarding the organization. Serving in this capacity will be: Mmes. Don B. Wolf, L. A. McCoy, H. L. Mitchell, H. R. Richards, Grover C. Van Also assisting will be several Deventer and William Laughon, board members of the Junior Woman's Club. Serving as registrars for the day are Mrs. R. Bingham and Mrs. J. A. Tweedy. The following Life Members will pour: Mmes. Dean Sears, J. W. Post, C. T. Rippey, B. T. Whitney, H. F. Jamieson and Earl Miles.

Mrs. V. P. Benstead, will outline her plans for the coming year, as will Mrs. Godfrey Nelson, dramatic chairman.

Mrs. Peter Boonstra, who has been Health and Public Welfare Chairman for several years, will speak of the work done along those lines. International Clubs and Projects will be covered by Mrs. G. C. Van Deventer, and Mrs. Andrew Acampora, chairman of ways and means will tell of the Club's fund-raising projects planned for the coming year.

Mrs. Lee McCoy, federation extension secretary of Marina District, will provide an insight into the connection between the organization and Federation. Mrs. H. F. Heinlein, program chairman, will mention the entertainment in store for the club during the coming year and Mrs. Howard Altermat, art chairman, will illustrate the Club's plans along these lines.

Connor, Williams Linked in Marriage

Miss Jackie Connor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Summers, 1650 W. 255th St., Harbor City, became the bride of Gene Williams, son of Mrs. Lawrence L. Williams, 1637 W. 248th St., Harbor City at ceremonies performed by Rev. Walter Graham, Friday at the Western Ave. Baptist Church.

Orchid and white floral arrangements decorated the church for the occasion. The bride wearing a floor length gown of silk organza over taffeta approached the altar on the arm of her stepfather.

Styled along princess lines the bridal dress featured an empire bow and venetian lace bodice. Her silk illusion veil flowed from a curl coronet and she carried a bouquet of silver anniversary roses with a lavender cast.

Mrs. Roger Simmons served the bride as matron of honor with bridesmaids, Delores Weber and the bridegroom's sister, Kathy Williams.

The bride's attendants were gowned in identical dresses of orchid and purple. The matron of honor carried dark purple and

Final Plans for Twins Picnic Set for Meeting

Final plans for the Mother's of Twins Club's big outing at El Retiro Park, July 26 will be discussed at the groups next meeting Monday at the Plush Horse.

A Hawaiian theme will prevail for the evenings program with Robert Garber, United Airlines representative slated to show a film on the new State.

At present picnic plans include a coffee hour at 10 a.m. and games throughout the day, announces Mrs. Dick White, president.

A highlight of the day will be the parade of fathers and twins at 12:30 p.m. Contests for the oldest, youngest, most alike and unlike twins are on the agenda and according to Mrs. Victor Heath, chairman, over 200 youngsters are already expected to attend.

Any mothers of twins in the South Bay area may attend the meeting by contacting Mrs. White at FR 5-3892.
